Do We Doubt?

“When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted.” Does this describe you and me as well? The commissioning of the disciples by Jesus Christ should be like a lit match that ignites the faith within each of us. Yet, just like the disciples, we worship, but we doubt.

How do we get beyond the doubt? God has given us so many examples and intercessors to keep us on the right path. We have a jealous enemy who does so much to keep us constantly confused by distorting or destroying our efforts, in hopes that we will tire and turn away. That is why Saint Paul urges us to “pray without ceasing” (see 1 Thessalonians 5:17).

When we truly put God first, this becomes easier and easier. I'm not saying that I have perfected my prayer life, but taking just one step in the right direction can make a big difference. Just saying "Jesus, I love you" as many times as you can during your daily routine brings Him to the forefront so you can receive the love He sends back to you.

The last two verses of today's Gospel serve as the mission statement for the parish I belong to. To keep our mission before us, we read it at each leadership meeting. We have also added our core purpose, core values, what we strive to be, and where we are succeeding. “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...” can be overwhelming words for many of us. They require that we step out of our comfort zone, something we tend to enjoy so much that we become totally wrapped up in it, sometimes so tightly that we are unable to move.

I do not doubt the power of Jesus Christ, nor should you. We have been given many examples throughout our lives, and it is our duty to continually praise and thank Him for all He has done for us. Take a moment to consider your life and where you can see Jesus with you throughout it. When you doubt, what replaces it? Faith, belief, confidence, knowledge, and trust.

Jesus has given us the greatest gift; He has not only ascended but, He is “with [us] always, until the end of the age.” In times of uncertainty, open the Bible and start reading. He is right there.
