Meet Parish Counselor Kathy Garza from Rejoice Counseling Apostolate

Kathy is a faith-filled Licensed Professional Counselor. She earned a Master of Education in Educational Psychology from the University of Texas-Austin. She also earned a bachelor's degree in Bilingual Education from University of Houston-Clear Lake. She is credentialed as a mediator through Travis County Dispute Resolution Center and is also a Level II Certified Clinical Trauma Professional. Using trauma-informed counseling strategies, she offers supportive treatment to clients who suffer from complex trauma.

Kathy enjoys supporting children, adolescents, adults, families, and couples. Kathy helps clients process traumatic experiences such as loss and grief, and work on relationship-related issues including parenting, adoption-adjustment, and sibling rivalry. Kathy supports clients who suffer with anxiety and depression through the use of varied techniques. She also enjoys helping clients discover their God-given purpose through career counseling using the O*NET system (Occupational Information Network). Kathy specializes in forensic evaluations for immigration: Extreme Hardship, Asylum, VAWA (Violence Against Women), U Visa (Victims of Crime), and T Visa (Victims of Trafficking). She is on the Forensic Evaluation Clinician provider list for the Houston Immigration Legal Service Center. She provides forensic evaluations for immigration through her work with the Laetare Group in Katy.

Kathy is married and has been blessed with six children and three grandsons. She likes to spend time with family and friends. Her self-care activities including listening to music, reading and practicing extremely basic yoga. Kathy is bilingual in English and Spanish. She is a retired school counselor and teacher who educated children and adolescents in Texas and Jalisco, Mexico. Her home parish is Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church. Kathy lives a life full of joy, focused on the love of God, and this is what she desires for those whom she serves.
